DAYS	PROGRAMME DESCRIPTION
DAY 01	We will start our ride from Gurgaon..The ride from Kaladhungi to Pangot, is a paradise for birdwatchers, and passes through the forested area of Cheena Range and Kilbury.
DAY 02	The ride from Pangot to Dhanachuli with its innumerable curves is heaven for motorcyclists. We will reach Dhanachuli by lunch time and the rest of the day is free to relax or explore the trails in Dhanachuli.
DAY 03	Continue climbing the mountains to reach Abbot Mountain from Dhanachuli.
DAY 04	We reach Munsiyari the “Place of Snow” today after an exhilarating ride. Located on the banks of Gori Ganga river Munsiyari is at an elevation of 7200ft. It also falls on the ancient salt route from Tibet.
DAY 05	Today is a rest day and Munsiyari offers splendid vistas with breath taking views of Panchachulli, a group of five peaks ranging from 6321 mtr to 6904 mtr. You can take a stroll through the meadows and visit Birthi Falls.
DAY 06	Another day of winding roads will take us to our destination for the day Jhaltola. A sleepy hamlet offering wide view of the mighty Himalayas, Jhalotla is the perfect place for recuperating.
DAY 07	Kausani, a hill town famously described as the “Switzerland of India” by Mahatma Gandhi is our destination for the day. As the ride is a short ride we will reach Kausani by lunch and the day is free to explore the town.
DAY 08	The destination for the day Peora is a small Kumaoni hamlet with traditional tiled roof villages huts that are scattered on the slopes of its contoured valleys, surrounded by dense pine forests.
DAY 09	After spending nine days in the mountains we head back to the plains today. Corbett National Park is India’s oldest and most prestigious national park established way back in 1936 and it is also the first tiger reserve. We spend the night on the banks of the Koshi river at Corbett River View Lodge.
DAY 10	Rest Day in Corbett National Park.
DAY 11	Ride Back to Gurgaon after breakfast.
